

DYSLEXIA CERTIFICATE
GRADUATE AND
UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

Program Highlights

- Earn a certificate in a high-demand area
- Cohort model with practicum experiences
- Certificate completion in 3-4 semesters
- Designed for educators, parents, school administrators, physicians, psychologists and other professionals working with students who struggle in reading and spelling

Required Coursework & Expected Schedule

Graduate Program	Undergraduate	Course Offering
	Any 1-hour, 3000-level or higher course focused on working with children
EDS 6080: Dyslexia & Multi-Sensory Instr.	EDS 4080: Dyslexia & Multi-Sensory Instr.	3 credit hours, morning synchronous, Summer B term
EDS 6090: Dyslexia Methods & Assessment	EDS 4090: Dyslexia Methods & Assessment	3 credit hours, evening synchronous online, Fall term
EDS 6095: Practicum I: Dyslexia Methods and Assessment	EDS 4095: Practicum I: Dyslexia Methods and Assessment	1 credit hour, Fall term
EDS 6190: Dyslexia Interventions Methods	EDS 4190: Dyslexia Interventions Methods	3 credit hours, evening synchronous online, Spring term
EDS 6195: Practicum II: Dyslexia Methods & Interventions	EDS 4195: Practicum II: Dyslexia Methods & Interventions	1 credit hour, Spring term

Undergraduate Admission Requirements

- A minimum of 60 semester hours of completed undergraduate work at an accredited institution
- A minimum 2.75 GPA; Any Phonics course

Graduate Admission Requirements

- Minimum undergraduate GPA of 2.75 from an accredited institution; Any Phonics course
- Admission into the WSU Graduate School

For More Information, go to:

<https://education-human-services.wright.edu/teacher-education/dyslexia-specialist-certification>

APPLY TODAY at WWW.WRIGHT.EDU

Contact

Dr. Colleen Q. Saxen
Teacher Education Department
Assistant Chair
Dyslexia Certificate Program Director
colleen.saxen@wright.edu