Self-Assessment

List your strengths that will assist you as a teacher.	Identify some of the areas you look forward to learning about in your program.

Statement of Good Moral Character

The state of Ohio requires that all individuals completing a state approved teacher preparation program to be of "Good Moral Character". This is defined in section 3301:21-01 of the Administrative Code of Ohio.

Enrollment without disclosing this information to the college does not obligate the college to recommend you later for licensure.

Have you have ever:

1. Been convicted of, found guilty of, or pled guilty to any misdemeanor other than a traffic offense? Yes No
2. Been convicted of, found guilty of, or pled guilty to any felony? Yes No
3. Had a criminal conviction sealed or expunged? Yes No
4. Had a teaching credential limited, suspended, or revoked? Yes No
5. Had a teaching credential (license or permit) revoked? Yes No

If you answer "yes" to any of the above statements, please attach an explanation to this application. Sign, date and note your UID on the attachment.

As an applicant for one of the Teacher Education Department's Educator Preparation Programs, I understand that the department will conduct an official student records check. Information received from the records check will be used as part of the application review process. Information from the records check will be examined for student conduct decisions, behavioral issues, actions, etc. that may not align with the attributes, required by our accrediting body, the Ohio Department of Education, etc., of teachers who will be working with Prekindergarten through Grade 12 minor students. Applicants may be required to sign a release for the disclosure of information from other institutions as a condition of their admission. An applicant may be denied admission (or admission may be rescinded) if a student elects not to execute the release.
